MEMORIAL SERVICES

In Honor of Malcolm Burnett, Slain on the Field of Battle.

Memorial services were held at the Richard City Presbyterian Church, Sunday at 2 p. m., in honor of Malcolm Burnett, slain on the battlefields of France. The exercises were under charge of Rev. A. L. Stines, of Jasper, who preached from the 14th chapter of Job, 15th verse. He was assisted by Rev. G. W. Cox, of Chattanooga. Both are Baptist ministers, the former being a special friend of the deceased. Appropriate songs were rendered by a choir of Richard City singers.

Relatives of the dead soldier present were Malcolm Burnett, his father, Miss Jane Burnett, a sister, and Maude and Verda Byrd, neices, and Dock Burnett and wife, all of Richard City, Mrs. John Kilgore, of Chattanooga, a sister, Mrs. Robert Randle, a sister, and son, of Chattanooga; Will Burnett and family, Dee Burnett, wife and baby, of Sequatchie.

At the conclusion of the services gold stars were pinned on the service flag and memorial tablet hanging on the church wall, there being two already there Claud Crumbliss and Ransom Sampley.

There are fifty-four names on the tablet as follows:

J. M. Kirkpatrick, Reese Vintatoe, Ed Chapels, Arthur Marshall, Chas. Ross, Bryan Kirkpatrick, Otto Crank, Robt. Phillips, Jas. Phillips, Claud Crumbliss, Sam Towles, Ernest Rinkle, Chas. Towles, Ransom Sampley, Oliver Hass, Chas. Smith, Caston Shumake, W. L. Pearson, R. H. Hutchins, C. N. Jackson, Joe Wampler, Cicero Woodall, Chas. Cagle, Albert Gamble, Joe Randolph, Donald Smartout, Bert McCampbell, Horace Jenkins, Basil D. Smith, Dot Walker, Geo. Vinson, Austin Viall, Gideon Welch, Richard Randle, John Smith, Michael D. Welch, Marshall Dotson, Buford Gonce, Chas. Hass, Robt. Gibson, Frank Reynolds, Louie Graves, Martin Burkhardt, Geo. Lowery, Roy Simmons, Will Hickey, Prentiss Graves, Albert Holder, R. J. Boyd, Mack Burnett, Fred Crumbliss, Morris Raulston.

The attendance was very limited and it is to be regretted that more people were not out to pay their respects to one who gave his life in the service of his country.

FEDERAL SOLDIER DEAD

J. A. Baumgartner, of Dunlap, Joins Army on Other Side of River.

Dunlap, Tenn., Sept. 12.—J. A. Baumgartner, an old federal soldier, died here last week, aged 82, after a long illness through increasing age. He was a member of Post 53, G. A. R., of Sequatchie, and a most regular attendant at its memorial observances and reunions. He was a Virginian by birth, but located in Sequatchie Valley a long time ago. He died at the home of his son, Al Baumgartner, with whom he lived, his wife having died several years ago. Interment was made in Rankin cemetery Friday, Rev. C. T. Gray officiating.

FORMERLY OF WHITWELL

Hudson-Pederson Wedding At Marquette, Mich.

The following account of the wedding of Walter Hudson, formerly of Whitwell, and Miss Emma Pederson, of Marquette, Mich., is from the Aurora, Mich., Republican:

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Lars Pedersen was the scene of a very pretty home wedding on Thursday evening, Aug. 28, when Miss Emma Pedersen became the bride of Walter Hudson. At 9 p. m., to the strains of music from the piano at which Mrs. Arthur A. Pedersen presided, the bridal party marched in and took their places under a large wedding bell. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. B. Small, pastor of the United Brethren church of Marquette. Guests to the number of 30 were witnesses.

After congratulations the newly married couple led the way to the dining room, where a three-course dinner was served. The bride was charmingly attired in white satin and georgette-crepe and carried a bouquet of pink and white roses, while the groom wore a suit of blue serge. The decorations and color scheme throughout were pink and white. A number of beautiful and useful presents of silverware, cut glass, hand-painted china, etc., were received.

This young couple are very popular with everyone who knows them. The bride is a charming young lady, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lars Pedersen. The groom is a highly respected young man, recently returned from overseas military service, and lived in this vicinity for several years prior to his enlistment. They will make their home with the bride's parents for a time. Mr. Hudson has been employed as a clerk by the Marquette Mercantile Company, and will begin work Oct. 1st. They have a host of friends who extend heartfelt congratulations and wish them all happiness in their married life. Out-of-town guests were Miss Thora Clausen, of Omaha, and Walter Pedersen, of Ravenna.

PRETTY CEREMONY

Marriage of Miss May Rudder and Mr. Coleman Jones.

Bridgeport, Ala., Sept. 13.—Miss May Rudder and Mr. Coleman Jones were married at Union Church, Jackson county, Ala., Sept. 3, in one of the prettiest wedding ceremonies of the season. The chapel was decorated with greenery from the woods and gardens, ferns and cut flowers, and the ceremony was impressively said by Rev. J. H. Vann, of Bridgeport. Mrs. C. E. Timberlake played the wedding march, while Mrs. Walter Sanders rendered beautiful solos. The bride was attired in brown, wearing corsage of La France roses and maidenhair ferns. The happy couple are now spending their honeymoon sight-seeing in the east.

"Rat-Snap" Beats the Best Trap Ever Made," Mrs. Emily Shaw Says.

"My husband bought a $2 trap. I bought a box of RAT-SNAP. The trap only caught 3 rats, but RAT-SNAP killed twelve in a week. I'm never without RAT-SNAP. Reckon I could n't raise chicks without it." RAT-SNAP comes in cakes. Three sizes, 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold and guaranteed by Sequatchie Supply Store, Sequatchie, Friend & Cates, Victoria; Layne & Havron, Whitwell; Whitwell Drug Co., Whitwell; F. Only Good Piggies Visit the Chattanooga Inter-State Fair

Wolf Pit, Ky.

Special to the News.

Have been here for a few weeks and I like this place fine. Work is good every day and it is a splendid place to live. They furnish electric lights in all the company houses.

Gilbert Slatton said he liked this place, but he would like to see his best girl in Tennessee.

Roy Layne has been sick with fever, but is recovering.

Morgan Kilgore got a letter from his best girl at Tracy City. Gilbert Slatton said he would like to hear from Oak Grove. He said that Pearl Kilgore was a great little girl.

How is everybody in Happy Hollow and the Pocket?

Roy Layne said he was coming home when he gets so he can.

We regret to know of Miss Jessie Layne's illness.

We suppose that Gilbert Slatton will be home Xmas.

Chas. Kilgore and family moved from this place to Alecorn City, Ky.

Would like to hear from everybody in the hollow. W. P. R.

TO ENFORCE TRUANT LAW

Bledsoe County to See that Kids Get "Book Larnin'."

Dunlap, Sept. 17.—Bledsoe authorities are going to enforce the truant law, and kiddies will have to dive down after the "book larnin'." All children between the ages of 7 and 16 must be in some school, either public or private for the period of the public school of the county. Severe prosecution will follow disobedience of this law.

SINGING CONVENTION

Marion County Songsters to Meet at Richard City Next Sunday.

The Marion County Singing Convention will meet at Richard City Sept. 21. A number of singers from out of the county are expected and a considerable program will be rendered. It will be an all-day affair, convening at 10 o'clock. Arrangements are under the direction of J. S. Cowan, of Whitwell, president of the organization, and the exercises will be held at the Fair Grounds. This is the first meeting of the Marion County Singing Convention to be held this year, the singers failing to get together before.

CUMBERLAND CO. FAIR

To Take Place at Crossville, Sept. 23 and 24.

Crossville, Tenn., Sept. 12.—The Cumberland County Fair will be held at Crossville Sept. 23 and 24. A special effort is being made to have the display of farm products greater than last year, and a most complete list of premiums has been prepared to attract exhibits outside of personal solicitation by the managers. The best exhibits will be placed in the Cumberland county exhibit to be made at the Tri-State Fair, in Chattanooga, week beginning Sept. 28.

OPENING OF PUBLIC SCHOOL

The Sequatchie Public School opened Monday with the following teachers: Prof. Sewell Childress, of Whitwell, principal, Miss Nell Leland, intermediate, and Miss Jennie Harris, primary. School has been delayed on account of the difficulty in securing a principal, and the directors are fortunate in securing Prof. Childress who is recommended as an excellent teacher. Miss Leland has been making a study of the teaching profession and very enthusiastic in her work, while Miss Harris is too well known to need recommendation and her methods in dealing with primary pupils are not to be excelled.

IN MEMORY OF

T. B. HAMRICK

Whose Death Occurred at Whitwell, Aug. 18, of Paralysis.

How sad it is to pen the death of our friend, Mr. T. B. Hamrick, who departed this life August 18, 1919. Mr. Hamrick was born Jan. 10, 1857, and was married to Miss Abigail Harris Dec. 30, 1886. To this union were born 10 children. Two have departed this life and entered into the Golden Gates, where they waited the coming of papa. He leaves to mourn his loss his wife and eight children. On the morning of his death he seemed brighter and better than he had seemed for years. He and his wife and his sister, Mrs. Carter, and nephew went to his daughter's, Mrs. Dan Rogers, to spend the day. He enjoyed being with his little grandchildren. He was struck with paralysis twenty-five minutes past two and died soon after nine o'clock that night.

Mr. Hamrick obeyed the Gospel 34 years ago and lived up to the teaching of his Bible until his death, reading it constantly. He had been past doing anything for the past ten years, and his Bible was his guide and friend. To the wife and children, brothers and sisters, I would say let us strive to meet our loving companion, father and brother in the great beyond where there will be no sorrow and no pain, and all will be joy, peace and pleasure. Farewell dear papa, until we come to meet you in your heavenly home, farewell.
